Sydney (free day)

Breakfast at hotel. Whole day at leisure.

A free day for you to explore Sydney at your pace.

Or be Adventurous and try the Sydney Bridge Climb, climb to the top of the largest steel arch bridge in the world. At the summit of the iconic Sydney Harbor Bridge, you'll relish breathtaking views of Australia's most beautiful city and beyond.

The Bridge Climb is on Cumberland Street in the historic Rocks, a stroll from either Circular Quay or Wynyard Train Station. Climbs begin at regular intervals, from early in the morning through to the evening, and all the equipment you'll need is provided.

Your climb leader is there to make sure your experience's safe and fun, and will provide intriguing facts about the bridge along the way. After the climb you'll receive a photo of yourself on the bridge, so you can cherish the memory and share your adventure with family and friends back home.

A range of climbs is available. The main Bridge Climb is 3h 30min return along ladders and catwalks and the outer arch of the bridge to the top, which is 134 meters above the sparkling blue waters of Sydney Harbor. Cost: AUD $303 per person

Rate is per person and in Australian Dollars (including Goods & Services Tax (GST))

Start Time depends on the day from 9:00a.m.-3:00p.m.
